

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL NO.
15-10390-PBS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JAYME GORDON

ORDER ON EXCLUDABLE TIME

January 25, 2016

DEIN, M.J.

With the agreement of the parties, this court finds and concludes, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and Section 5(b)(7)(B) of the Plan for Prompt Disposition of Criminal Cases in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts (Statement of Time Limits Adopted by the Court and Procedures for Implementing Them, Effective December 2008), that the defendant requires the time for the preparation of an effective defense, including time for review of the evidence, preparation of motions and consideration of alternatives concerning how best to proceed, and that the interests of justice outweighs the best interests of the public and the defendants for a trial within seventy days of the return of an indictment. I further find that not granting this continuance would deny counsel for both the government and the defendant a reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

Accordingly, it is hereby ordered that the Clerk of Court enter excludable time for the period of January 25, 2016 through February 24, 2016, that being the period between the expiration of the last order of excludable time and the next status conference. Based upon the December 21, 2015 order of this court and this order, as of February 24, 2016 there will be zero (0) days of non-excludable time and seventy (70) days will remain under the Speedy Trial Act in which this case must be tried.
